

Restoration Kitchen & Cocktails Donates $13K to Veterans Group

Suffolk County United Veterans receives generous donation. Funds will help at-risk and homeless Veterans.

By MARK GROSSMAN PUBLIC RELATIONS | Feb 1, 2019 4:47 pm ET

This post was contributed by a community member.

Restoration Kitchen & Cocktails of Lindenhurst recently donated $13,175 to Suffolk County United Veterans (SCUV). The donation is part of an ongoing program at Restoration where a percentage of their profits are donated to select charities.

Restoration is owned by Billy and Nicole Miller, who opened the restaurant four months ago. Staff at Restoration wear shirts emblazoned with the phrase, "Be the Good You Want to See in the World," which embodies their philosophy of giving back to the community.

Subscribe

SCUV – a project of the Association for Mental Health and Wellness (MHAW) – provides housing and support services to at-risk and homeless Veterans.

Pictured, from left: Thomas McOlvin, Board Vice President, MHAW; Ruth McDade, Director of Development, MHAW; Nicole and Billy Miller, Owners, Restoration Kitchen & Cocktails; and, Wilkens Young, Director, SCUV.